

MOUND CITY.

A child of Mr. Wilson's died Sunday.

Miss Adela Gillis is confined to her bed with pneumonia.

Frank Peacock and Alice Johnson were married Monday.

Charles McDaniel and bride will be at home in the Christian parsonage after the 15th.

"The Evening News," is delivered regularly to more than a hundred subscribers. Ira Donham, carrier.

Brush College Literary on Monday night was disturbed by a fight. Cause—some one went home with his girl.

Chas. Zook and George Meyer went to Oregon Saturday night to see some "cousins." Wish they would bring their "cousins" here to live.

Will Denny is no longer in the employ of J. M. Austin, and talks some of going west. We hate to see such young men as Will leave town, but wish him success wherever he goes.

The young ladies are going to give a leap year party at the hall this week; we like to see the young folks enjoy themselves and if the girls try to make it pleasant for the boys, the boys will "ditto."

Henry Ashbrook, our large cattle dealer, says he lost four head of cattle by the cold snap; but he thinks he has done well to lose only four out of the eleven hundred he has ready to take out on the range in the spring.

Corsant & Meyer have hung out a large sign with "Cash Store" in large letters upon it. The sign was made by Charlie Hummel, of St. Joe, and is very neat, but it can't be any more than that of C. E. Cochran, jeweler, painted by John Youse.

Mound City might allow the young folks to have a nice dancing club, and it would be no more harmful than the skating rink. If some of the old folks would just study the question more carefully they would find our nice girls and boys would not make any harm of it at all.

A party of our young folks went sleigh riding last Wednesday evening and while out, visited the Lyceum at Pleasant Hill school house. The folks seemed to appreciate the visit very much and called on them to sing. And they gave them "One more river to cross," in good shape. They must have liked the selection for they said, "come again girls and boys."

D. P. Baldwin, an old man about sixty years old, has been for several nights past visiting George Shufeldt's corn crib. It is charged, and carrying away a sack of corn without first getting George's consent. The old fellow was caught in the act once but would not take warning, so George laid for him again, and had him arrested; he was placed under one hundred dollars bond, and it may go pretty hard with the old fellow.

The boys who were out sleigh riding last Wednesday night, say they tried their best to keep from upsetting, but one who was passing everybody, while going through a lane where the snow was two feet deep on level ground, turned the cutter upside down throwing himself out and the young lady on top of him. After extricating himself from his awkward position, he left the young lady lying in the snow, and seized the reins of the running horse which was trying to make them walk home. Some of the party say "he had a great deal of (gall)."

A pleasant surprise party was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Earl, the youngest married couple in town; they have just come to keeping house and the young folks thought they would surprise them in their own home, and have a house warming. It was a very enjoyable affair, consisting of the full, mingled with social games, and then to complete the occasion, refreshments of the richest kind were spread before them by the kind host and hostess. All went away at midnight feeling that a more pleasant evening could not have been spent, and wishing the young couple all the happiness and sunshine possible.

The elevator shipped three cars of wheat this last week.

Mrs. Swan has been very sick, but is improving under the skillful attention of Dr. Deerece.

Jim Stewart has been recalled from Westboro, and is temporarily filling M. F. Young's place at Nishna Station.

Dave Graves, the young man with the wonderful explosive laugh, took dinner in Corning on Sunday, and left in the afternoon for the neighborhood of Schulte Lake, to see somebody's else's "best girl."

If you don't think Corning is lively drop in some Saturday and behold the vast number of teams tied to our rack; it is needless to say the people coming here all do trading, no leaders are allowed in town.

We have from a reliable source that an actual prize fight between two of our young "wildcats" took place on the sand bar last Sunday. Three rounds were fought and both were finally declared winners.

Parties have been all the "go" during the past week. One on Tuesday evening at Paul Schulz was given in honor to Miss Mary Scholz, who is visiting friends and relatives here. The evening was passed in the various games and dancing, and everybody left well pleased with the evening's enjoyment. Another party of like nature was given at Mr. Mace Price's on the very same evening. The young people here, also, "tripped the light fantastic" to the best music that has ever been any one's lot to listen to. All left feeling that they were under many obligations to Mr. and Mrs. Price for so enjoyable an evening.

FOREST CITY.

Our colored school is now in an excellent condition.

Sanford Limpus is suffering from an attack of rheumatism.

H. K. S. Robinson spent Sunday in St. Joseph, accompanied by his son.

Pete Galbreth was badly hurt one day last week by falling against a barrel and breaking a few ribs. He is now out again in good shape.

A large quantity of fine ice has been stored here, in anticipation of a very warm time the coming summer. Some of our political friends are beginning to feel the coming warmth.

Joseph Berry, living south of this place, slipped on the ice one day last week, the fall injuring him seriously. He was taken to St. Joseph to be operated on and died from the effects of his injuries.

Not having seen anything in your paper, the best in the county, from this, the best town in the county, for a long time, and having fully concluded that your former correspondent, has either married, run away or is in attendance at some country school. Our merchants, while they have not done as well the past year as they would have liked, they have no reason to complain. It will be remembered that a large portion of the territory tributary to this place was so badly deluged during the early part of the season, that a very large portion of our near farmers failed to make a crop of any kind, and in consequence of this, the trade at this place has been curtailed to some extent, but all are hopeful as to the future. It does not appear that there will be any changes in our mercantile firms except Web, H. Smith, who withdraws from the firm of Smith, Luckhardt & Co. Mr. George Weber as heretofore, will be cashier of the Frazer & McDonald bank, assisted by H. K. S. Robinson. Graves & Weber assisted by Dan Pitt, J. B. Lamb & F. S. Wells, at the old Red Front, Luckhardt & Co. at the old stand, C. W. Hitt with furniture at the postoffice building. Miss Mary Canon with stationery at the postoffice. G. W. Baldwin with groceries, confections and musical merchandise. Jacob Limpus with groceries, confections and Limburger cheese. Milton & Burgess, general store, at the old Zook stand. J. Balfrey, bakery and boarding house. Will Turnham, Grove & Sennett will do the slaughtering. Ben Fisher and G. W. Knough will repair your wagon or make a new one. William Miller who has recently purchased the R. P. Zook livery stable, will continue the business. R. B. Harrison & Co., William Harris & Co., will continue to do us with meat and pork. Our tonsorial artist, Giles Norton will shave you for a dime. John Jackson, the only son of Crispin, will always be found at his place of business ready and willing to save the soles of your boots. Adrian Pinkston, we learn has purchased the Hobbsville interest in the lumber yard, and from what we can see and judge, he will take an assistant before the Johnny-jump-up men pop their blue heads through the ground. W. H. Williams will continue in the hardware business at his old stand. And those that are thirsty will call on Burgess and Beeler, who will furnish the drinks.

Singing was well attended Saturday night.

The timber seems to call the attention of most of our farmers.

A wedding is expected in the near future. It's about time, we think.

Miss Bowers returned to her friends across the river on Saturday.

Jake goes no more to the Far West. Under the circumstances, who would?

Frank Kite will knock the fuzz when he gets his new gun from Kansas City.

A small child of John Judy's is dangerously ill. We hope it will soon recover. Dr. Bain is in attendance.

Mr. Jake Griffith has rented his farm to Henry Kite, and intends going to school; at least Madame Rumer says so.

Sol Lower starts before daylight and comes back after dark in order to prevent the ladies from gazing on his lovely countenance.

Clint Nauman started out the first day of the new year with the full determination of getting a wife. From the way he talked last Sunday, he is under good headway.

Conundrum—Why is it that a certain young man in order to get to a point one half mile east of the school house, goes around the section? Answer next week.

The boys caricatured E. P. Eddy Saturday night. When the boys got to know they couldn't talk, they were invited to take a smoke to the happiness and prosperity of the happy couple.

Mr. Pete Nauman and brother sold two thousand bushels of corn at forty-three cents per bushel. Several others are selling at the same price. A firm from Iowa are buying for home consumption.

In a few more weeks we will lose a few of our neighbors. We are sorry to lose them, but what is our loss is somebody's gain. Their places cannot be filled with better people. Success be with them.

The young folks had quite a pleasant party at Mr. Garrett's on Monday night.

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR

Until March 1, 1894.

THE LEADING DEMOCRATIC PAPER.

FOR THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN.

THE TIMES has long been recognized as the leading Family Paper of the West. It has special departments for THE FARM, HOUSEHOLD, GARDEN and STOCK INTERESTS; and with publishing the serial stories, written by leading novelists, letters from farmers and foreign correspondents; and devote liberal space to the advocacy of equal rights for the producing classes and the proper regulation of grasping railroad corporations. It is the only paper in the West which refuses to accept railroad passes; preferring to pay its way and not be under obligation to monopolies now oppressing the producing taxpayers of the Great West.

OUR PLATFORM.—We believe that no man can honestly make fifty million dollars in ten years, and if Jay Gould has made that, or even more as reported, it has been done by jobbery and stock watering, doubling, tripling and quadrupling the stock and bonds of his railroads and forcing the agricultural products of the West to pay three or four times as much as they should for transportation in order to pay interest on this bloated debt. This should stop, and the TIMES will labor to accomplish that and other reforms, which may be briefly summed up:

First—Control the railroad and other public corporations by stringent laws—make them pay taxes on the value of their property as evidenced by their stocks and bonds on which they pay interest. We hold, for instance, that the Missouri Pacific system, having 650 miles of road in Missouri, valued at and paying 7-8 per cent. interest on $54,337,200, should certainly pay taxes on more than $2,407,537 valuation as at present. We hold that the people of Kansas should not be compelled to give such rates for transporting their products as will pay interest on watered stock and bonds to the amount of $174,000 per mile, as is now piled up on the Kansas Pacific railroad.

Second—Revision of the present antiquated tariff laws by which $150,000,000 more than necessary for governmental purposes are annually extorted from the people. Free trade in lumber and iron for western farmers.

Third—Prohibition and land option, in antagonism to prohibition and land option, as being the best way to secure temperance, which we much desire.

Fourth—The restoration of the lands unlawfully claimed by the land grant railroads to homestead and pre-emption by the people.

Fifth—The opening of the Indian Territory to white settlement.

For these and other reforms it deems pertinent to western life, the TIMES will labor unflinchingly, and we appeal to the people of Missouri, Kansas and of the New West.

A SPECIAL OFFER.

We have decided to receive subscriptions at the reduced rate of $1.00 a year until March 1, 1894.
